Philosophy of Ministry: Partnering with local churches to build and strengthen the local church, specifically through children’s ministries (Bible teaching, Scripture engagement, and Bible memorization). My focus is clearly explaining how to have a relationship with God rather than just counting conversions. Indians have an assigned religion, so it is easy for them to say. “Yes, I am a Christian,” but I want to teach them how to have a real relationship with God and how they can then explain that relationship to others as well.

Background and Testimony:

I was saved at a young age and baptized while attending Calvary Baptist Church in Men. Falls. I attended Pensacola Christian College where I studied Professional Writing. After I graduated, I traveled to several different countries, with India being one of them. While there, I saw the need of the people and prayed to God to send someone. While praying, James 4:17 came to mind: “To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin.” I felt God calling me to go back, and I have trained 4 months in Zambia and spent a total of 22 months in India.

Future Plans:

I am raising money for a short term trip (currently at 70%) to go to India to spend one year with missionaries reaching the unreached Maithili people in Northern India. I will come home and continue full time deputation, to return to India where I will attend language school and join in fulltime ministry.
